

Course: SC 700EA_ON / Assemblage Sculpture from Home

Instructor: Colleen O'Donnell

Days/Dates: 5 weeks, Session 2, July 6 – August 9

Time: Tuesday, 6pm – 8pm Assemblage is a creative method of sculpture incorporating everyday found objects into a three-dimensional sculpture. This process allows for the creation of dramatic, humorous, emotional and satirical works of art.

You can start with a box, such as a

- shoebox
- tissue box
- food box (pizza, candy etc.)
- empty drawer

In the box you can attach 2D images such as

- Personal photographs
- Images from the internet
- Images from newspapers and magazines
- food and candy wrappers
- wallpaper
- holiday paper
- book pages
- Maps

3D objects such as

- things from nature- leaves, rocks, wooden sticks, shells etc.
- mechanical items, nails, screws, washers
- electronic items, old cartridges, cd's, wires, tools
- kitchen items, jars, utensils, chopsticks, etc
- food items- beans, spaghetti, rice, flakes
- office items: pens, pencils, paperclips, tacks, ink cartridges etc.
- miscellaneous: string, jewelry parts, bathroom items

Goals may include:

- Relax, have fun and let the assemblage sculpture happen intuitively
- Make something that has value to you personally
- Create a statement about what you are experiencing right now
