ID REQUIREMENTS FOR ON-CAMPUS CLASSES

To enter PAFA's buildings and participate in on-campus classes as a CE student, the following documentation and procedures are required, per the directives of PAFA's Office of Safety and Security:

- CE students enrolled in multi-week classes must present a new or updated PAFA photo ID card. Students will be emailed instructions on how to obtain a new ID prior to their first day of class; returning students with a recent ID from a previous course may reuse the same card. Note: Your PAFA ID confers school access and benefits for the length of your course(s), from the start date to the last day of your classes each semester.
- CE students enrolled in workshops or courses running one-week or less are not eligible to receive an ID card but must check/sign in at the Security Desk with proof of registration to enter PAFA's buildings for the length of their course. ID cards and semester access privileges are not issued to students enrolled in workshops or one-week intensives. Students enrolled in only online or off-campus/outdoor courses do not need a PAFA ID card.

COVID-19 CAMPUS SAFETY POLICIES

PAFA no longer requires COVID vaccination as of May 4, 2023, based on current science and City of Philadelphia regulations. However, PAFA and the CDC strongly recommend full COVID vaccination and booster shots for all students and employees who are eligible, including the bivalent booster. We will continue to monitor campus policies for COVID-19 safety and prevention, in accordance with local, state, and federal guidelines.

- Masks are encouraged.
- Hand sanitizer is available throughout PAFA's buildings.
- All individuals who receive a positive COVID-19 test must follow current City of Philadelphia guidelines (<https://www.phila.gov/media/20221208093546/IE-Calendar-12.221.pdf>) for isolation.
- Students and staff must inform Jimmie Greeno III, Senior Director of Safety, Security and Facility Services, at jgreeno@pafa.org if they test positive for COVID-19. PAFA will treat information regarding the identity of staff or students with suspected or confirmed cases of COVID-19 as confidential to the extent practicable and will comply with applicable laws regarding the handling of such information

Thank you for your cooperation and commitment to a safe and productive campus.

ACADEMIC CREDIT

PAFA is accredited through the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD) and the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE). PAFA is a member of the Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design (AICAD).

Undergraduate Credit

Courses meeting contact hour requirements (30 hours minimum, not including lunch breaks) are available for 1.0 or 1.5 undergraduate credits (see course descriptions for credit options). If taken for credit, you may incur additional coursework, and will receive a course grade and appropriate credit that will appear on an official PAFA transcript, if requested. For an official transcript, please submit a completed Transcript Request Form (www.pafa.org/transcripts) to PAFA's School Registrar with appropriate payment. Email pmedwick@pafa.edu for more information.

Changes in credit status must be arranged through the CE office prior to the third class for courses 12-weeks or longer, and prior to the second class for courses that run 10 weeks or fewer. No refunds can be issued for changes from credit to non-credit.

Credit for K – 12 Educators

PAFA is approved to provide Pennsylvania Act 48 hours and New Jersey Department of Education Professional Development Credit for its courses and workshops. Courses and workshops are eligible for the number of contact hours for which they meet (excluding lunch breaks). Courses need not be taken for PAFA undergraduate academic credit to be eligible for professional development credit hours (see credit options and tuition pricing on individual courses). Educators electing to receive PA Act 48 or NJ Professional Development Credit should notify the Continuing Education Programs office when registering. PA educators must provide their six-digit Professional Educator Identification Number.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT ENROLLMENT

Teens in grades 9 – 12 are encouraged to enroll in PAFA's Pre-College Programs (www.pafa.org/highschool). High school students aged 15 years or older may register in Continuing Education adult courses/programs with parent/guardian permission.

PAYMENT, WITHDRAWAL, AND REFUND POLICY

- Full payment is due at the time of registration. PAFA cannot prorate courses for late registration, withdrawals or missed classes.
- Withdrawals must be made in writing via email (continuinged@pafa.edu) to the Continuing Education Programs office.
- Fees are incurred for withdrawals at any time after registration (including same-day). See refund schedule below. The minimum charge covers fees incurred to the CE program by registration and credit card processing. Increased tuition deductions apply for withdrawals less than one week before course start dates and after courses have begun; short courses and special programs offer limited refund options.
- In lieu of a withdrawal before a course start date, a student may transfer into another course within the current semester. Payment of additional tuition must be made at time of transfer if a balance is due; there is no transfer fee. No further refunds are available for a subsequent withdrawal from the transferred class.
- Credits are available on a limited basis when serious illness or injury prevents continuation of a class in-progress. Credits are not available for withdrawals prior to course start dates or for non-medical reasons. A doctor's note or other documentation may be required. Credits may not be transferred to another individual.
- Exceptions cannot be made to the refund schedule below, and refunds/credits cannot be issued, for withdrawals or missed classes due to of illness/injury (except by doctor's note), personal emergencies or scheduling conflicts, transportation/traffic issues, or other events beyond PAFA's control.

Withdrawal refunds will be adjusted according to the following schedule (regardless of course attendance):

Multi-Week Courses Six Weeks or Longer

- Prior to one week before the first class: 90% tuition
- After the above, prior to the second class: 50% tuition
- After the above: No Refunds

Multi-Week Courses Under Six Weeks in Length and One-Week Intensive Courses

- Prior to one week before the first class: 90% tuition
- After the above: No Refunds

Workshops and Special Programs (One- to Three-Day Courses other than Master Classes)

- Prior to one week before the first class: 90%
- After the above: No Refunds

Master Classes

- Prior to two weeks before the first class: 90%
- After the above: No Refunds

Open Academy Program

- Prior to two weeks before the first class: 90%
- After the above, prior to the 2nd class: 75%
- After the above, prior to the 3rd class: 50%
- After the above: No Refunds

CE Studio Rental Program

- Prior to one week before the first rental day of the program (by August 28): 90%
- After the above: No Refunds

COURSE CANCELLATIONS

If minimum enrollment is not met, a class will be cancelled on, or shortly after, its registration deadline. Students will be notified by email and may choose to transfer into another class or receive a full tuition and fee refund (no deductions). Remember: Early registration helps prevent course cancellation!

In the rare event that COVID-19 or another urgent issue requires PAFA's cancellation of a course in progress, a prorated refund or credit will be issued to enrolled students for all missed sessions.

TUITION DISCOUNTS AND SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES*

- Membership Discounts – PAFA members at the Friend level and above receive a 10% tuition discount on regular courses, workshops, and Master Classes during the entire year of their membership. For information about becoming a member, visit www.pafa.org/join.
- Referral Discounts – Refer a first-time Continuing Education student, and you and the student will receive a 10% tuition discount on one regular course or workshop within the current semester (Master Classes excluded). Email continuinged@pafa.edu to provide the name of the student you referred; CE will verify the registration and provide a discount code or tuition refund for the discount amount.
- CE Community Scholarships – Available by application to assist students who demonstrate financial need and dedication to their art. Scholarships are applicable toward one regular course or workshop within the current semester. Apply online at <https://www.pafa.org/school/academics/continuing-education/discounts>. Fall Application deadline: September 5. Email continuinged@pafa.edu for questions.

* Restrictions may apply. Lockers, certificate application fees, gift certificates, and special programs such as Open Academy, Studio Rental, and Master Classes are ineligible for discounts and scholarship assistance. Email continuinged@pafa.edu for questions.

CLASSROOM/CAMPUS POLICIES

Access to PAFA's classroom facilities, including the Cast Hall and library, is granted only to students enrolled in in-person on-campus courses, with appropriate ID/vaccination requirements, for the length of their courses (start-date to end-date). Students enrolled in online courses are not approved to access PAFA's classroom and shop facilities.

- Students are required to use odorless solvents, i.e. Turpenoid. NO TURPENTINE.
- Spray fixatives must be used outdoors or in the 10th floor spray booth. No indoor spraying allowed.
- Please do not empty solvents and/or paints into sinks or trashcans. Use appropriately-labeled barrels, located near each floor's utility sinks.
- Students are responsible for cleaning up after themselves before leaving class.
- Students may not touch, move, or place anything on/against the bases or any part of the antique cast collection in the Cast Hall.
- PAFA is not responsible for artwork or other belongings left in any PAFA studio or classroom.
- Students enrolled in sculpture or printmaking courses must abide by the rules established by the Shop Managers.

Complete information about the policies, procedures, and services offered at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, including general campus policies, expanded classroom regulations, disciplinary procedures, and sexual harassment and misconduct policies and resources is outlined in the PAFA Student Regulations and Policies, located at <https://www.pafa.org/school/student-life/student-policies-procedures>.

The Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts (PAFA) reserves the right to reproduce without notification photographs and video of students while attending Continuing Education Programs at PAFA for any lawful purpose and in any manner or in any medium. Reproduction purposes may include print publications, institutional websites, e-communications, multimedia presentations, and documents about PAFA for admission, recruitment, fundraising, or institutional informational purposes. By enrolling in PAFA Continuing Education courses and agreeing to the terms of this policy guide, students release PAFA Continuing Education and its legal representatives from liability for any violation or claims relating to said images or videos and waive their rights to any and all compensation stemming from the use of these materials. PAFA staff consults with students and faculty when photographing classes in progress and respects students' requests not to be photographed.
