- Please note that the research room is 68° F. We advise you to dress appropriately if you are not accustomed to working in cooler environments.
- Works of art may be handled by museum staff only.
- Only graphite pencils are allowed for notes.
- No food or drink, including bottled water is allowed.
- Coats and bags (except for laptops and small purses) must be checked in storage lockers.
- Please note that works on paper are by nature delicate objects that can be irreparably damaged from cumulative exposure to light. As a result, the museum exhibits only a small portion of its vast collections of prints, drawings, and photographs at any given time.
